Boosting seniors' physical activity and health

Life after retirement isn't what it used to be. Older adults are living longer and doing more, and as they age, the need for health and wellness through exercise, mind/body therapies and diet increases. Continuously barraged with discouraging national statistics about the poor health conditions and disease levels among their population, older adults are responding by taking a more active role in decisions that affect their health. They are also more open to opportunities that address and prevent potential health problems. Healthways Forever Fit® is a program designed for busy older adults with personal goals to take charge of their health.

Forever Fit offers life-enriching wellness and fitness products and services for older adults through a comprehensive network of nearly 30,000 practitioners and an extensive fitness center network of over 10,000 locations.
